

2015 AYLUS ESSAY CONTEST

Prompt: Why do you love AYLUS?

Deadline: December 10th, 2015

Length: 400-600 words

Coordinator: Christie Yu

Committee: Emily Wang (chair),
Christie Yu, Sophie Wen, Lauren
Yang, Cissy Xiao, Jonathan Liu,
Alex Lin, Eric Wu, Shangtao Wu,
Claire Wen, Bradley Yu, Jessica
Fan

The 2015 AYLUS Essay Contest offers students the chance to demonstrate their writing skills while additionally showing their passion and love for the AYLUS community.

The top three papers in each grade category will be featured on the AYLUS website and will be used by the organization for future charity events.

Participants will enter in the categories of grades K-5, 7-9, and 10-12.

Prompt: Why do you love AYLUS?

Length: 400-600 words. Please submit in a Word document (.docx) format, in size 12 and standard font (e.g: Times New Roman, Arial).

Deadline: Please submit all titled essays to essay@aylus.org by 11:59 PM on December 10th, 2015, along with the writer's full name, age, grade, e-mail address, and picture. We will need a picture of the writer to publish the written work!

AYLUS will honor contestants with volunteer hours for the time spent working on the essay. Download the volunteer hours request form at <http://aylus.org/documents-and-forms/>.

Winners will be contacted by e-mail by January 1st, 2016. Please email questions to Christie Yu at essay@aylus.org or vp@aylus.org.